Leadership in Action Course

The Leadership in Action course aims to develop leadership and management skills in the next generation of entrepreneurial leaders in South Australia and to build mid level management capacity in growth and export oriented ICT, Electronics, Digital Content and Creative Industries companies.

Benefits

- Stronger more focused middle management
- Improved retention and acknowledgement of potential leaders
- Improved communication within the business
- Improved initiative and accountability

Participants will learn to:

- Be more effective leaders
- Identify key skills and abilities for themselves
- Apply their key skills and abilities in a productive way
- Communicate on different levels – with a manager, with a peer, with a team member
- Improve their interaction with those around them
- Stay focused on the end goal

Participants will understand:

- What leadership is about
- How to build high performing teams
- Communication styles
- Their personal goals
- Importance of staying on track and how to keep themselves there
- Re-evaluating end goals along the way to refocus themselves

Who should attend

- Middle managers or team leaders
- CEOs of young companies
